Memorial Day 2013

Dear Fellow Residents:

I am proud to present the 4th edition of Huntington's War Heroes: A Guide to Our Town's Historic Veterans.

This Guide features articles on six veterans who have left a lasting legacy in our Town: Brothers John Somerfield Carr and Hosea Valentine Carr, lifelong residents of Huntington who served together during the Civil War; Alonzo P. Dodge, Huntington businessman and a Civil War Navy veteran; George Barr, an avid cyclist, choir member at St. John's Episcopal Presbyterian Church and Civil War veteran; Santo "Sonny" Dolci, lifelong resident of Huntington, Northport community leader, past Commander of the Northport American Legion and Korean War veteran; and Raymond Ives, Huntington resident, World War II veteran and prisoner of war.

Huntington's War Heroes: A Guide to Our Town's Historic Veterans contains a list of veterans from the Revolutionary War, War of 1812 and Civil War who are buried in the Town of Huntington. Also included is a list of all historic cemeteries located in the Town: the name and location of each cemetery, the years in which it was active and the number of residents buried there.

Huntington's War Heroes: A Guide to Our Town's Historic Veterans also contains both an application to include a veteran buried in the Town of Huntington in the Fifth Edition of Huntington's War Heroes and an application to receive the Town of Huntington Veterans Memorial Headstone Marker. Sponsored by Telephonics Corporation, the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and the Town of Huntington Veterans Advisory Committee, the Memorial Headstone Marker program was begun to acknowledge and commemorate the service of any veteran buried in the Town of Huntington. The marker features a gold plate with the words "This Memorial Is In Recognition of Honored Service" as well as the Town of Huntington seal. The marker can be placed adjacent to the headstone and will be free of charge to any resident that completes the application and provides service documentation.

If you have any comments or questions on the Guide or any other issue, my door is always open. I can be reached at Huntington Town Hall at (631) 351-3173.

Very truly yours,

JOHN S. AND HOSEA V. CARR

1843-1920 / 1937-1919

Brothers John Somerfield Carr and Hosea Valentine Carr, both lifelong residents of Huntington, served together during the Civil War as part of the 127th New York Volunteers Regiment. Hosea was born on October 28th, 1837 on the family farm in the Long Swamp area of Huntington, near present day Beverly Road and Old Country Road. John was born in 1843. Their parents were Jonathan Carr and Amelia Soper Carr.

The brothers enlisted together on August 22, 1862 in Company E of the 127th regiment. Hosea was 24-years-old; John was around 19-years-old. The 127th, or "The Monitor Regiment" as it was called, was a New York Infantry Regiment comprised of volunteers from New York City and Long Island. Company E, under the command of Captain William Gurney of Greenlawn, represented the Huntington area.

Two days after enlisting, Hosea married Harriett J. Valentine who was 17-years-old at the time. Sixteen days later, Hosea left for battle and Company E ventured out of New York on September 10, 1862. Hosea and John served as part of the First Brigade, Second-Division, Fourth Corps and participated in 14 engagements at Suffolk, Virginia; Charleston Harbor, South Carolina; and Fort Sumter, among others. They both served together until the war ended in 1865. After the war ended, Hosea and John became members of the JC Walters Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, the local Civil War Veterans organization.

Settling back on Long Island, Hosea and his family worked as farmers at Long Swamp. The Valentine-Carr's were very involved in the Melville Presbyterian Church. In 1913, Hosea and Harriett sold their farm in South Huntington and moved to a home on Park Avenue in Huntington Village and became parishioners of the First Presbyterian Church. Hosea passed away at the age of 82 in November of 1919. Funeral services were held in his home. He was buried in Huntington Rural Cemetery.

John also moved back to Huntington after the war ended and was a member of the Independent Order of the Odd Fellows. John died in January of 1920 at the age of 77. Funeral services were held in his home. He was also buried at the Huntington Rural Cemetery.

ALONZO P. DODGE

1840-1934

Alonzo P. Dodge was born in Port Washington on September 10, 1840 to Peter and Hannah Ketcham Dodge. At the age of 18, Dodge came to Huntington as an apprentice in blacksmithing and carriage-making under the tutelage of Frederick B. Sammis, whose carriage factory was located at 6 Green Street in Huntington Village.

In August of 1862, four months after the Civil War began, Dodge enlisted with the United States Navy. He served aboard the gunboat Ellis under the command of Lieutenant W.B. Cushing. The Ellis was known for destroying the Confederate warship, Albermarle, along the Roanoke River at Plymouth, North Carolina. The Ellis was later lost off of the coast of North Carolina but the crew survived. Dodge also served aboard the Hunchback and then the Miami for the duration of the war. He was honorably discharged on May 20, 1865.

After the war, Dodge returned to Huntington to open his own carriage factory with Conklin. The Conklin & Dodge Factory was located on Main Street, where Bank of America is today.

On May 11, 1871, Alonzo Dodge married Huntington resident Mary Conklin. The couple was married for 60 years. After retiring from the carriage business, Dodge opened a successful hardware store in Huntington Village.

Dodge was actively involved in his community as a member of the JC Walters Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Civil War Veterans organization; a charter member of the Huntington Fire Department; and as a director of the Huntington Memorial Library Association. The Huntington Memorial Library Association was influential in the construction of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Building, erected in 1892 and still in use today as a Town of Huntington facility.

Dodge passed away on February 7, 1934. Funeral services were held at the Clarence R. Huff Funeral Home and the Central Presbyterian Church. The Huntington post of the American Legion led the military funeral and acted as the pallbearers for Dodge. He is buried in the Huntington Rural Cemetery.

GEORGE F. BARR

1742-1814

George F. Barr was born in Petersham, Massachusetts on January 19, 1844. Barr decided early on that he wanted to enter the jewelry business and spent four years working in the trade in Greenfield, Massachusetts. George was 17-years-old when the Civil War began. He enlisted on March 14, 1861 and joined Company A of the Massachusetts Volunteers 52nd United States Regiment.

The 52nd Massachusetts Volunteers trained under Major General N.P. Banks on Long Island near Jamaica in 1861. The company relocated to Louisiana after training and remained there for much of the war. George Barr was honorably discharged on August 14, 1863. After the war, George returned to Massachusetts and joined the Edward E. Day Post

No. 641 of Greenfield. In the spring of 1869, George visited Huntington. Surveying the town, George decided that a jewelry business would do well there and made the decision to move to Huntington. Two years after he opened his shop in Huntington, George married Miss L. Anna Culver on March 22, 1871.

George's jewelry shop was located on Main Street on the south side of the block between the Central Presbyterian Church and present day New York Avenue. In 1888, a fire wiped out the entire block and destroyed George's jewelry shop but that did not deter him. George re-opened his shop in a new building and eventually took on Charles A. Willis as a business partner. The shop was relocated to a building west of Wall Street.

Aside from his business, George had two great passions in life, music and cycling. He was a parishioner of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church and sang avidly in the choir. He was also a charter member of the Huntington Brass Band. George loved the outdoors and enjoyed early morning rides around town on his high-wheel bicycle. He and other bicycle loving Huntingtonians formed the Huntington Bicycle Club in the 1890's. George was also a member of the JC Walters Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Civil War veterans organization, in Huntington and a trustee of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Association.

On his 90th birthday, George received a letter from Town Supervisor, William Watt, and the keys to the town. The letter read:

As Supervisor of the Town of Huntington, representing the Town Board and the people of the town, I extend to you the warmest congratulations of the people on the occasion of your ninetieth birthday, and wish you very many happy returns. As a token of esteem and affection in which you are held by the people of Huntington, I, hereby offer you the keys of the town, and as the morning of your birthday dawns you will know that the Town of Huntington is yours. Also be assured of what you are in yourself and what you have been to the people of Huntington, and to our beloved country, you hold the key to the heart of every citizen who believes that a life and a character such as yours is the very foundation and hope of our country.

George Barr died on January 18, 1935—a day shy of his 91st birthday. George's casket was brought to Huntington Rural Cemetery from St. John's Presbyterian Episcopal Church with a Huntington Police Department escort. A color guard and firing squad from the Huntington Post of the American Legion were also present at the military funeral service.

SANTO “SONNY” DOLCI

1931-2006

Santo Dolci, known by most as Sonny, was born in December of 1931 at Huntington Hospital. A lifelong Northport resident, he attended St. Philip Neri for grades 1-8 and Northport High School for grades 9-12. A scholar-athlete, Sonny played on the basketball and baseball teams.

After graduating, Sonny joined the U.S. Army in the time of the Korean War. As a token of appreciation for his service, he earned a Combat Infantry Man Badge, given to soldiers of a Colonel or lesser ranking for serving and protecting our country.

Following the war, Sonny returned home and married Liz Miller. Together, they had three children-Carolyn, Susan, and Steven-and raised them in his hometown of Northport. Sonny worked closely with Korean War and World War II veterans to construct the Northport American Legion Clubhouse.

Sonny was a 50 plus year member of the Legion and was also very involved with the local community. Sonny played a large roll in many events. He was the Chairman of the annual Cow Harbor Day Parade, Chairman of the Memorial Day Parade, Chairman of the annual Legion golf outing and Chairman of the Pearl Harbor Day Commemoration. Sonny helped to host the annual Northport High School Saturday morning football breakfasts and organized the Gatorade and water stand at Northport High School graduations, now an ongoing tradition.

Sonny passed away on July 1, 2006. He was, and continues to be, missed by his family, his fellow veterans and the greater Northport community.

RAYMOND IVES

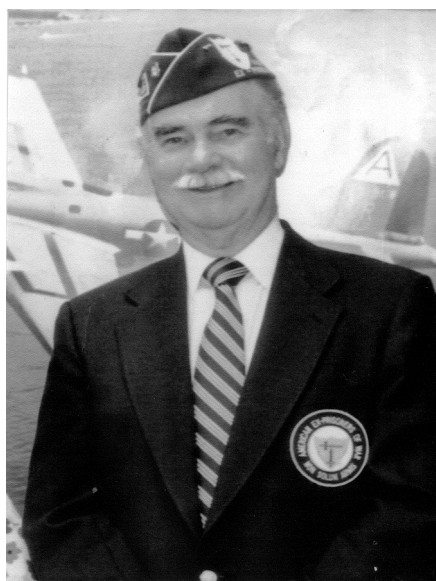

1921-2009

Raymond Ives was born in Madisonville, Pennsylvania and served as a second lieutenant with the 96th bomb group of the U.S. 8th Air Force in World War II. He participated in missions flying over German-occupied countries such as France, Poland and Germany.

While on duty, Raymond was ordered to bail from his plane, a mission that landed him in a region of France occupied by German troops. On October 14, 1943, a day known as Black Thursday, he was taken as a prisoner of war 50 miles from Paris. He endured great turmoil during the 19 months he was held captive. Raymond memorialized his and his fellow servicemen's struggle in his memoir, The Fickle Finger of Fate: The Memoir of a Bombardier With the 96th Bomb Group.

Raymond eventually settled on Long Island in the late 1950's. Always friendly and engaging, Raymond often went to Heckscher Park to meet new people and future friends; and brought his phonebook in hopes of exchanging phone numbers and staying in touch with those he met. Raymond was a fixture at the Willis Marine Boat Yard and his amicable nature made a lasting impact on the boating community. He and Eloise, his wife of 63 years, frequently went sailing and fishing on the East Coast and in Caribbean waters. Raymond and Eloise had three children together – Jon, Kim and Kathy.

On April 9, 2009 at the age of 88, Raymond passed away due to complications from a massive heart attack. He was buried at Pinelawn Cemetery in Melville. He is fondly remembered as a brave, kind and friendly man by his family and members of the greater Huntington community.
